MEDIA ALERT

The Global Youth Awards 2018 will come to Los Angeles for first time
Saturday, October 27, 2018
5:00p.m. – 9:00p.m.

WHO:

RoundTable Global will present The Global Youth Awards for the first time in Los Angeles, at the Glen Arden Club in Glendale. Established and held in the UK for 6 years, this intimate awards event in Los Angeles is the first of many international events, with other locations including London, Cape Town and Dubai.

The event will include special performances by young, up and coming artists, including Saudi-born singer-songwriter and activist Tamtam, Trinity Rose, Leanne Tessa, Jaynese 'Ladybug' Poole, and will be hosted by actor Ryan Alosio alongside inspiring youth hosts. RoundTable Global Founding Partners Tiffany Kelly and Denis Murphy will also be in attendance.

Media and influencers from the Los Angeles area, passionate about young people and promoting positive, sustainable social impact, are encouraged and invited to come and join us for this special launch event.

WHAT:

The Global Youth Awards are a platform to celebrate inspiring young people aged 12-25, who are doing remarkable things around the world in the areas of *Educational Innovation, Empowering Everyone and Environmental Rejuvenation.

The event is non-profit, and all contributors are donating their time in-kind, due to sharing a collective passion for highlighting positive change being created by young people around the globe.

Nine young winners will be awarded on the day for their outstanding achievements, and each will be paired with a mentor sourced from a network of Los Angeles professionals from the industries of film, entertainment, tech and social impact.

WHEN:

The Global Youth Awards will take place on Saturday, October 27 2018, starting at 5:00p.m. with canapé reception. Crews and photographers are invited to arrive by 4:30p.m. The event will be live streamed via KNEKT.tv, the award-winning Los Angeles-based production and live streaming company.

WHERE:

The Glen Arden Club, 357 Arden Avenue, Glendale, CA 91203.

RoundTable Global are experts in redefining corporate cultures and global communities, in unlocking potential in people and helping to release individuals from fears and self-limiting beliefs. They use this expertise to bring the creative and corporate worlds together for mutual benefit and learning, delivering leadership, innovation and change programs that further Three Global Goals: Educational Innovation, Empowering Everyone and Environmental Rejuvenation. These goals are their contribution to creating restorative, inclusive change in the world.

The Global Youth Awards are run by young people for young people and are a way of recognizing and rewarding outstanding youth contribution to the RoundTable Three Global Goals. Formerly the Positive for Youth Awards, now in its sixth year the awards will take place in 5 locations over the coming year, including in London, Los Angeles, Dubai and Cape Town, with an additional online ONE Global Award for young people anywhere in the globe.
